MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT : Transfer of Furniture to Executive Director, Youth Fitness Program, White House Executive Office

REFERENCE: Memorandum of 30 August 1956 from Acting Deputy Director (Support) to the Director of Logistics

1. In reference memorandum, Office of Logistics was authorized to effect transfer of certain items of furniture and furnishings to the White House Executive Office for use of Mr. Shane MacCarthy, Executive Director of the Youth Fitness Program. The referenced memorandum also provided that the items would be on a Memorandum Receipt and the transfer would be on a reimbursable basis.

2. In accordance with the provisions of the referenced memorandum, several billings were rendered to the Executive Director, Youth Fitness Program, White House Executive Office, for the total value of the items transferred ($2,950.37). As a result of these billings, Mr. Shane MacCarthy, Executive Director, Youth Fitness Program, contacted the undersigned and explained that his office operated on the basis of contributions from interested and related agencies and that, therefore, he does not have provision in his budget for reimbursement of the furniture transferred by CIA. Mr. MacCarthy therefore requested that CIA not require reimbursement for the items transferred but instead carry the furniture and furnishings on an indefinite loan basis.

3. The undersigned subsequently discussed the problem with Mr. H. Gates Lloyd, who agreed that CIA would not require reimbursement for the items transferred to Mr. MacCarthy and that the undersigned would so advise Mr. MacCarthy. Accordingly, a letter was forwarded by the Deputy Comptroller to Mr. MacCarthy, a copy of which is attached to this Memorandum for the Record.
